It is said that we live in a throw away society. What one teaching strategy would you never ‘throw away’?