Ellen Eisenberg, PIIC Executive Director, was recently published in the International Literacy Association's (ILA) The Engaging Classroom. The Coaching Cycle: Before, During, and After includes a description of what a

Before-During-After (BDA) cycle

looks like in practice and addresses how working through the BDA cycle of consultation helps teachers and coaches to effectively identify areas of strenth and need as a form of embedded professional development.

Click here to read the article

Click here to return to PIIC News Page